

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

Hon. Thos. R. Marshall, Governor of Indiana:

Sir—I have the honor to herewith submit for your examination the report of the Auditor of State for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1911, giving in detail the fiscal affairs of the State, with an elaborate showing of receipts and disbursements and exhaustive tabulations reviewing abstracts of county duplicates and settlements; valuable data, associated with tax levies, duplicates, and all features associated with the assessment, collection and disposition of public revenues. I have also submitted extended reports of the insurance, land, building association, banking and trust bureaus, with suggestions as provided by statute, that in my judgment would be of benefit to the people in strengthening the law as to the efficiency of these agencies of public utility.

Answer.—Disability conditions. The insured must become totally and permanently disabled while this policy is in full force and effect after one full annual premium has been paid and prior to default in the payment of any subsequent premium or installment thereof and before the insured attains the age of 60 years, and the disability must be such that there is neither then, nor at any time thereafter, any work, occupation or profession that the insured can ever sufficiently do, or follow, to earn or obtain any wages, compensation or profit, and immediately after the happening of such disability full particulars thereof must be given to the company, in writing, at its home office, and prior to any liability on the part of the company under either of said options satisfactory proof of such disability must be given to the company at its home office upon blanks furnished by the company, and the policy must be produced to the company, at its home office, and the agreement to pay the installments of the face of the policy or the premiums must be endorsed by the company thereon in writing.

If, however, the insured should so far recover as to be able to engage in any gainful occupation, the obligation on the part of the company to pay the remainder of the installments or the premiums shall immediately cease and the insured shall resume the payments of premiums beginning with the first premium becoming due after the date of such recovery. Proofs similar to those required in the first instance must be furnished of such continuous disability prior to the payment of each installment or premium by the company, if demanded.

The payment of twenty installments is in lieu of the payment of the face of this policy at the death of the insured, and should the insured die before all installments have been paid the remaining installments will be paid in like manner to the beneficiary herein named, provided that the holder of the policy accepting the option of installment payment shall not be required to pay any more premiums after the permanent disability arises and such option is accepted.

If the insured shall become disabled as hereinbefore described, after attaining the age of 80 years, said insured may have the benefit of Option 2, subject to the terms and conditions herein governing the same, with the modification that instead of being paid by the company the premium will be allowed to accumulate without interest as an indebtedness against the policy.

The insured, in case of total and permanent disability, may select one of the following options:

Option 1. One-twentieth of the amount under this policy will be paid in cash to the insured immediately upon satisfactory proof of such disability, and a like amount upon each succeeding anniversary, until twenty annual payments shall have been made; or,

Option 2. The company will pay all premiums thereafter becoming due on this contract; and in such event, the cash, loan and other value shall increase in the same manner as if the premiums were paid by the insured.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION DEPARTMENT, STATE OF INDIANA.

We desire to congratulate the entire people of the State on the passage of the excellent new building and loan law at the recent session of the Legislature.

A general revision of the laws relating to such associations has been needed for many years and the enactment of such a law has been recommended by every one of my immediate predecessors, for the reason that the building and loan association as a financial institution has far outgrown its original purposes, and the demands of it made necessary broader financial privileges, but more strict supervision as well.

At last, through the public-spirited efforts of members of the Executive Committee of the Savings and Loan Association League of Indiana, the work of revision has been accomplished, and, with the co-operation of this department, a complete new law, applicable to all such associations, a law of which it can be said with perfect fairness, that Indiana today has the best building and loan law in the United States, a law which in the future, will be recognized as the most important piece of legislation passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Building and loan associations in their very nature, are semi-philanthropic and have a two-fold purpose; to encourage the saving of money and to promote the ownership of homes. They are the most economically conducted financial institutions in the world, and they enable the great masses of the people to acquire homes by small savings from week to week and month to month, and such associations are the greatest known factors for the making of contented and law-abiding citizens and taxpayers.

The members of these institutions, the community and the State, will all reap manifold benefits from their organization, encouragement and growth.

With the same system of State examination as provided for banks and trust companies, which we now have under our new building and loan law, and with proper and conservative management, building and loan associations are as safe and sound as the most conservatively managed financial institutions in the State.

The first association in Indiana was the Richmond Building Association, organized at Richmond, August 16, 1870. Indiana now has 363 associations with a membership of more than 130,000 and assets amounting to nearly $50,000,000.

Last year's reports show that there were 5,713 such associations in the United States, with a membership of 2,016,611 and total assets amounting to $856,332,719. The reports show an increase over preceding year of 114 associations, 96,394 members and $72,156,966 in assets. The new law provides that every domestic building and loan association shall in the month of January of each year file in the office of the Auditor of State a statement of its condition at the close of business on the 31st day of December preceding. Therefore, it will be impossible to publish the complete annual report of such associations until January, 1912, at which time a full and complete report will be published of the business of all building and loan associations in Indiana, from the time of the last annual report June 30, 1910, to December 31, 1911, inclusive, in a separate report for distribution among all such associations and for anyone else, who may be interested in said report.

It is a pleasure to report, that of the 131 associations examined by the State building and loan examiners during the last five months, not one was found insolvent. While many irregularities were found, but few were of criminal intent, but nearly all were due to faulty and imperfect bookkeeping.

Under Section 28 of the new law, "any such associations shall keep full and correct books of account, showing all their operations and the auditor of State is hereby authorized to formulate and prescribe such regulations respecting the manner and form of keeping such accounts, as he shall deem necessary for the making of reports and examinations required by law, such regulation to be uniform for all accounts of the same class."

Under this section of the law, the building and loan department had printed, a complete lot of samples of every description, of books and blanks, pass-books, articles of incorporation and by-laws, the most complete ever furnished by any building and loan department in the United States. A complete outfit of samples was mailed to every association in the State, and with the revision already made and being made along the line of the system promulgated by this department, it will only be a short time until building and loan associations will have such a uniform and perfect system of bookkeeping as is only found in well regulated banks and trust companies.

By reason of the enactment of our new building and loan law, the associations throughout the State are not only entering upon a new era, but as a result of the increased confidence in the exceptionally wise, safe and conservative provisions of the new law, building associations in all sections of the State have made unusual progress during the last year in the great number of new members, the large increase in assets and the unprecedented increase in new associations.

Considering the number of associations, the large membership and assets of such associations, we confidently assert, without any fear of successful contradiction, that the State Building and Loan Department of Indiana, is more efficiently and economically conducted than any other similar State Building and Loan Department in the United States.

BANK DEPARTMENT.

It is the duty of the Auditor of State to enforce the laws pertaining to banking. The Legislature of 1911 improved the laws in the following respects:

Bonds of officers of State Banks and Trust Companies are now filed in the office of the Auditor. Formerly they were filed with the Secretary, and the Auditor had no means of knowing when bonds had expired, or, in fact, when they were on file.

Sufficient bank examiners were provided so that the Auditor can have semi-annual examinations of all the banks. Previous to the enactment of this law, savings banks were examined once in two years, trust companies every six months, state and private banks once a year. Under this law many banks went as long as nineteen months between examinations, which was too long for careful and proper state supervision.

The Auditor now has six examiners, a sufficient number so that every bank can be examined semi-annually. The value of this law has already been demonstrated. Fees for examinations were increased to an amount so that the department is now self-sustaining. No examination could be conducted for $10, the minimum fee under the old law, and banks with resources of two millions could not be examined properly for a fee of $35, the maximum fee under the old law. The cost of maintenance has now been equally distributed among the banks in proportion to the resources of each bank.

The trust laws were amended so that the Auditor can close and take charge of a Trust Company when insolvent, the same as a state, private or savings bank.

The following improvements have been made in examination forms:

List showing name of every customer whose account is overdrawn, the amount of the overdraft and whether it is temporary or chronic.

List of doubtful loans, showing name of borrower, amount, and how long past due.

List of loans to officers and directors and their liability upon loans of the bank as endorsers.

List of loans in excess of $2,500, except mortgages. An index is kept of all these borrowers and all banks will be furnished information, showing the amount borrowed by any firm or individual from all the banks. We will not give you the name of the bank to whom the parties are indebted, but we will give you the amount owing to the banks combined; then you can decide for yourself whether or not they are borrowing more money than they can pay back. The value of this information can be readily understood.

List showing salary of officers and employes that are borrowers.

The examiners are now required to call in the directors during the examination and go over all the loans and discuss the general conditions, then the directors sign a statement showing that such an examination has been made; that the notes do not contain any accommodation paper; that they are all good, to the best of their knowledge and belief; that loans considered excessive will be reduced. This is a step in the right direction, as it makes directors direct.

We have had no bank failures in Indiana during the past fiscal year.

ANNUAL REPORT

LAND DEPARTMENT

1911

WILLIAM H. O'BRIEN
AUDITOR OF STATE

JEROME HERFF
CLERK LAND DEPARTMENT

LAND DEPARTMENT.

I herewith submit my annual report from the Land Department for the year 1911, embracing lists of lands by counties, consisting of swamp and overflowed lands, Wabash and Erie canal lands which remain unsold at this time, and land lying between the meander lines of the United States survey on each side of the Kankakee River, which are being surveyed, platted and appraised; also lands and lots forfeited to the State for the nonpayment of college and other funds loaned by the State, and lands occupied by the different state institutions, all of which the State holds title thereto.

Lands disposed of from October 1, 1910, to October 1, 1911, known as Kankakee meandered lands, five hundred acres and sixteen-hundredths of an acre. Swamp and overflowed land which have been previously surveyed, one thousand six hundred and sixty-five acres and five-hundredths of an acre.

Before sale is made of lands or lots belonging to the State, each must be appraised and may be sold at private or public sale. When sold at public sale such lands or lots are advertised three consecutive weeks in a newspaper in the county in which the land is located.

The Auditor of State is fully authorized under the law approved March 9, 1889, to dispose of all lands belonging to the State at public or private sale.

The amount of swamp, Wabash and Erie canal, and other lands to be disposed of by the State, will aggregate between seven and ten thousand acres, not including the Kankakee meandered lands.

There are also many tracts of land which were sold by the United States, and after sale it was found that the same had been selected and patented to the State as swamp lands, when the United States government cancelled such sales and refunded the money paid for the same. Many of these cases have been adjusted and the land purchased and patented to the present owners.

The need of a special fund for the purpose of surveying the Kankakee lands, platting and appraising, retards the sale of the same, and I would recommend that the General Assembly appoint a select committee to investigate this condition and to recommend an amount sufficient to have this done; also lands that have been surveyed by the United States and donated to the State as swamp and overflowed lands should have a fund set apart for the appraisalment, as this must be done under the law before it can be sold.

A great amount of the land in the State has not been patented, and much of it sold by the State as state lands and patents not recorded in the counties in which it lies.

Some provision should be made to have all these patents recorded by the original purchasers in the counties.

Provision should be made to complete a general index in this department that the matter of the original title should be more easily adjusted and found of record.

The matter of furnishing satisfaction to sinking fund mortgages as far back as 1835, in which this was not done in the counties where the mortgages were recorded, consumes a great amount of time, and in many cases the same was forfeited to the State, and doubtless much of the land upon which the loans were made from this fund now belongs to the State. These records should be looked over, indexed, and made so that the department can satisfy the mortgages, if so entitled to be done.

We also give a complete record of all lands occupied by state institutions and belonging to the State.

REPORT OF THE STATE BOARD OF TAX COMMISSIONERS

TO THE
SIXTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

OFFICE OF THE STATE BOARD OF TAX COMMISSIONERS OF INDIANA.

To the Sixty-seventh General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

In compliance with the law the State Board of Tax Commissioner of Indiana submits this biennial report.

We are required "to report to you the whole amount of revenue collected in the State for all purposes, classifying as to State, county, township and municipal purposes, with the sources thereof, the amount lost, and the causes thereof, the proceedings of the Board, and such other matters of information concerning the public revenues as we may deem of public interest."

This report is made to each legislature, and as we interpret the statute; covers the period of two years and the statements and comparisons should be made accordingly, but we append hereto and make a part hereof a statement for the year 1910 only, and the statement for 1909 is omitted. We do this because, in our opinion, it would not be wise economy to put the State to the expense of printing an extended tabulated statement of the year 1909, when for all your purposes the statement of 1910 will fully serve.

We give you for the last year the total collection of all taxes, by funds, as shown by the May and December settlements. We also submit an abstract by counties showing the total taxable property of the State, real and personal, including railroad and other corporate property assessed by us, together with the amount of taxes levied thereon for State and local purposes, and also the number of taxable polls in the several counties of the State for the year 1910.

We also append a tabular statement showing the levies by townships on each one hundred dollars of taxable property, as computed for the year 1910, and including poll taxes.

The facts shown by these statements will enable you to form a reasonably accurate estimate as to the amount to be levied by you in cases where the law requires you to make levies, and this we take it is the main purpose of the law which requires us to make such a report.

If it shall be determined by the Legislature to be necessary to have a similar report for the year 1909, and that the expense of printing the same can be justified, we will be ready to supplement this report by similar tabulated statements for that year and place the same in your hands without any delay, excepting only the delay necessary to have the same printed. And we further suggest that the annual report of the Auditor of State for the year 1909 will aid you in making any comparisons that you may need to make with that fiscal year.

As to any losses shown therein we cannot with any accuracy state the causes; what are shown will appear to be the ordinary causes of failure to collect, and the delinquent taxes seem to be growing less each year. School revenues seem to be not included in the statute. We apprehend an appreciable loss in the next year, arising from the fact that the Supreme Court has decided that there is no power anywhere to employ persons to place omitted and sequestered property upon the duplicate, unless the property so omitted or sequestered is located outside of the county in which the taxpayer resides, and for this reason those so heretofore engaged have abandoned that work.

We believe that laws should be enacted with proper and reasonable restrictions which would enable this Board to make legal contracts for the collection of taxes upon all omitted and sequestered property, or to make it legal for other officers to make such contracts to be approved by this Board, and in no case should the compensation exceed the sum of 15 per cent. of the moneys thus collected, and not in any case to be paid until the money is collected, and such persons so engaged should be put under bond for the faithful and honest execution of their contracts.

We recommend and strongly urge the repeal of the Act of February 24, 1905, which exempts the property of Greek letter fraternities from taxation. These organizations are in no sense charitable, religious or educational, but are social only, and there is no good reason why the property of such associations should be exempt from taxation. In some communities this exemption adds greatly to the burden to be borne by other property and is unjust from every point of view.

In our opinion, those who hold promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness, should be required to present them to the assessor to be assessed, and the listing officer, each year, should be required to indorse upon such the fact that they have been listed for taxation, and it should be provided by law that such claims could not be collected until so indorsed and all back taxes thereon paid.

Individuals and corporations are assessed with what is known as, and called road tax, and such taxes are intended for the improvement of the highways. It is also provided by law that such taxes may be worked out by the taxpayer, under the direction of the township trustee, at a compensation fixed by the statute. This law has been regarded as being beneficial to the individual taxpayer, and especially to the farmer, as it gives him an opportunity to put in his spare time in working upon the roads, but it has been grossly abused by the railroad corporations. They sublet to others the working out of these taxes and in many cases there is another subletting, so that third parties do the work for not much more than half of the amount of the original tax assessed against the railroad company, and thus the people of the road district, in almost every instance, do not get the benefit of much more, and in many cases, not any more than half of the tax so assessed against the corporation.

A law which would give the individual the right to work out his road tax, and deny it to the corporation, would probably be invalid as being class legislation. So that the only remedy for this great abuse seems to be the repeal of all laws authorizing the working out of road tax, and making that tax as all others are, payable in money only.

Dissatisfaction, as well as criticism, has come under the observation of the State Tax Board as to the manner in which stock held in banks and trust companies is assessed.

Under the present law the Board of Review in the county where the banks or trust companies are located assess this stock. The board in one county will assess the stock of the bank or trust company located in its county at 65 per cent. or 70 per cent. on the dollar, based upon the capital, surplus and undivided profits, while in an adjoining county the board will place the valuation on the same basis at 85 per cent. or 90 per cent. The banker who has been assessed at a higher valuation (everything being equal) than the banker in the neighboring county, immediately complains of being treated unfairly and unjustly by the Board of Review of his county, and as a remedy appeals to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for relief, as did Boone County bankers last July, while in the county where the assessment is made at a lower valuation than the county adjoining the banker makes no complaint, but the honest taxpayer steps in and makes complaint that the Board of Review of his county is favoring the banks and trust companies and compelling him to bear the burden of taxation. The result is we now have 92 boards to assess the banks and trust companies throughout the State, which amounts to no uniformity whatever in the assessment of this class of property.

There have been several suggestions as to the best manner of assessing such institutions, but after considering the matter, it is our opinion that if banks and trust companies were classified according to their capital, surplus, deposits and earning power, as well as the volume of business done, for taxation purposes, and placed under the jurisdiction of the State Board of Tax Commissioners, to be assessed along the same lines as they assess other corporate property, there would be a more equal and uniform valuation placed against such companies for taxation purposes.

The issuing of stock and bonds by municipal corporations should be controlled by law so as to prevent frauds upon the public and imposition upon investors.

The Secretary of State is ex officio a member of this Board, and has in charge in his office such matters pertaining to corporations, but the responsibility of determining how much stock, or how much in bonds a municipal corporation should be allowed to issue, is one that one person would not care to assume. In view of these facts we suggest that a law should be enacted that would give this Board the power to determine such matters and that no issuance of stock or bonds by such corporations should be legal until approved by this Board. This, we believe, would tend to prevent fraud and protect the public and conserve the interests of all concerned and be a proper regulation of a domestic corporation.

The recommendations as to legislation which are made herein have been made with the express consent of the Chief Executive of the State, and we think with his concurrence. However, they all relate to matters concerning the public revenues, and to give the legislature such information is a part of the duty laid upon this Board.

The proceedings of this Board in detail, showing the assessments made, may be found in its annual reports to the Governor. copies of which are herewith transmitted.

As required by law, the county assessors are called into an annual conference each year. These meetings are held in the Capitol building, and as soon as they are adjourned are followed by meetings in each county of the township assessors, at which one member of this Board attends, for the purpose of giving instructions to such officers in relation to their duties. We need not inform you that all citizens are interested in the matter of taxation, but we desire to state that this Board has taken pains to promote and increase this interest upon the part of the taxpayer, and has requested that all classes of taxpayers be invited to these annual meetings, which occur during the first two months of the calendar year and are held at the county seats; and from the private citizen, as well as from the taxing officers, many valuable suggestions are received there, some of which have led to the recommendations we have incorporated in this report.

Considered generally, the public revenues of the State seem to be in a satisfactory condition. They are sufficient to sustain our state, school and municipal establishments.

The tax law of 1891 is now, and has been ever since its enactment, regarded as a model and has been copied by several of the other States, recently by the State of West Virginia. It has stood the test of all the courts where its validity could be tried.

The suggestions we make would tend to make a better administration of it, and help to carry out the purposes of the original framers of the statute.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN W. McARDLE,
FRED L. GEMMER,
C. C. MATSON,
State Tax Commissioners.
